If there is move the users back to origin According to my experience You can safely stop inheritance, clear all permissions and and only the ones that you think of.. I installed the SP today on a test server, and so far I didn't encounter any problem.. --> Test it with a test-user before doing it in production ? Hope it could help.. What I suggest though would be: - Create a new OU / Sub-OU - Move 1 or 2 users into that OU - Customize the aCL - Test the solution above - Check if something is not working anymore.
